

Paid sex in Thailand?

0 upvotes | 8 October, 2016 | by empatheticapathetic

I've been on TRP a year and I think I actually do worse with women now. I'm also very depressed and it's ruining my life.

I've been out doing exciting things over the last few months but I haven't enjoyed a single second of any of it. I'm just too hung up on my lack of experiences with women, I want those experiences now.

All my friends easily pull constantly. Most are more socially retarded than me, don't lift, very BP, emotionally open, boring. And they get opened, go home, the works etc. I open myself constantly and just get hostility.

I'm basically a 27 year old virgin (had paid sex 3 times this year) and I just want to go and get sex out of my system so I don't fucking care anymore. Been dealing with these feelings for 10 years and I'm not closer to getting anywhere while everyone else has moved on with their life.

I've never been one to blame my race but being an ugly Indian guy is an actual issue that causes my reality I've since come to realise.

Has anyone here had paid sexual experiences in Thailand? I just want to rock up for 2 weeks, have a lot of cheap paid sex and then leave. And then maybe I'll start doing this once a year or something. I have no other fool proof plan on getting laid and it's time to get it over with.

Are there any risks to this? How common is sex tourism over there? Is it legal or something done behind the scenes? Appreciate any advice from people who have been to Thailand.

Hey bro, I posted on your ED thread a few weeks back.

Are you speaking from experience, or something you read here?

Yes I want to have sex with any women, I don't care if they're hot tbh. How do I 'just do it'? I'm basically invisible to most women. I have a perfect storm of things that just make me unwanted I guess. I don't know how to progress anymore.

I haven't been to Thailand but I've had friends go. Apparently it can be a little awkward because it is not technically legal but is tolerated. Which country do you live in?

empatheticapathetic[S] • 1 point • 8 October, 2016 11:58 PM

UK. I've heard about it but don't know anyone who could really advise me about it. Wondered if there was anyone here who's experienced shit, it's known as a sex tourism spot.

Style333 • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 02:38 AM

Why not visit them in the UK? Yes, I know Thailand is cheaper. However, unless you are really into Asian women then surely the UK is also an option?

Go to Thailand, have safe sex and wrap it up. It's a fairly safe country and as long as you aren't doing under aged girls you will be fine.

empatheticapathetic[S] • 1 point • 8 October, 2016 11:59 PM

Have you been? Or have friends who have been?

NICOLAWRITES • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 05:55 AM

Yeah. I've gone there a few times. Went for a few bachelor parties etc. it's definitely not hard to get propositioned. Just go to any bar and you'll get a soft sell from a local bar girl. Just make sure you wrap it up and never go unprotected.

You get blown out on your opens because of your shitty attitude, fixing that is more important than lifting or being "BP" or not.

If you think you're "an ugly Indian guy" women are going to respond to you accordingly.

You're not a virgin if you've had sex three times this year, I don't care if you paid for it or not. You've already had these experiences you're so hung up on.

If you're going to blow a shitload of money on some kind of sex tourism vacation, which I don't recommend, how about the parts of Europe where it is actually legal, and you don't have the possibility of accidentally hooking up with someone underage? Also, you could maybe get some actual game in while you're there.

Honestly bro I appreciate the advice but I can tell you I don't consider myself an ugly Indian dude when I'm out. This is a reluctant observation I've decided to resign myself to literally in the last few days after seeing my new bro in action and absolutely clean up when I feel objectively I'm better than him. It's just a consistent repeat of everything I've ever experienced. Don't tell me about my own life.

I've been to the escort plenty more where I couldn't get it up. And shit is too expensive for me. So I wanted to go to a situation where I could blow reasonable cash and have a 2 week sexcapade. And if that is all I ever experience in life, I'd truly be happy I did it. My friend died from a brain aneurysm 3 days ago and I realised "forget this waiting til whenever. I want to experience this now. I have the cash and time so I'm going to do it."

Where would you recommend in Europe where I could achieve what I'm after? I looked at Thailand flights earlier and it's actually too expensive for me right now. So the idea seems dead.

If you're ever going to refer to yourself as an ugly Indian dude, then there is some kind of self image issue that absolutely is going to come across while you're out. "I'm George Clooney when I'm out, but an ugly Indian dude the second I get home" isn't really a thing.

I'm not sure in what ways you're measuring yourself as objectively better than this other guy, are you more fun? Do you escalate better, do you qualify better?

If it was me, and I was going to travel somewhere to spend money on hookers, I'd go to the main canal in Amsterdam. Its expensive as shit, but some of the girls on the main drag are bonafide stunners. I'd personally want to go with quality over quantity in this case, unless you have a particular thing for Asians, or girls that look like (and possibly are) underage.

Additionally, there are all sorts of tourists and such there with a "what happens in Amsterdam stays in Amsterdam" sort of attitude. Legal weed and 'shrooms doesn't hurt either.

As I said it's a recent thing that I've decided "I'm an ugly Indian dude". I've never blamed my skin colour before (when in multicultural areas). When I'm out I'm just having a good time and I act like I'm the shit. I literally just got back from being out replying to this right now. Tried it on and escalated with a few, nothing. Even an indian girl; i wasn't hot enough for her even though she was a 5.

I am having more fun, I know 'the rules' better as in I don't qualify, I hold frame, I don't over chat, I talk to everyone, I definitely escalate (took me a long time to get there) and I just have a good time. Even tonight he was talking to people too long, asking boring questions. Other ways I feel I'm better: physique, body language and presence, eye contact, simply talking to people in a more interesting manner.

Amsterdam is expensive. I'd prefer quantity over quality. I want to have a lot of sex and get it out my system. An honest life goal is to have sex more than 10 times. I'll raise SMV for the rest of my life because I've always valued productivity over wasting time. But I'm just depressed now, I don't enjoy life anymore. I nearly had it last year with my oneitis and I fucked it up for being blue and not knowing the game. Now I've just pined for the experience for a year now, and have no prospects. Is there anywhere else in Europe? Or was Amsterdam your only suggestion? As I said Thailand seems too expensive but I might just Fucking do it anyway next year.

anon1moos • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 12:21 AM

Most of Europe is pretty expensive in general once you're there, although the flight is likely quite a bit cheaper than to anywhere in Asia.

Amsterdam is crazy because most of those things I just mentioned are legal in Amsterdam, but illegal in the rest of The Netherlands. I know prostitution is legal in Germany, and that before the migrant crisis there we a bunch of Eastern European immigrants coming there and driving the price down. That being said, everything else is reasonably expensive in Germany.

Have you considered Nevada? I'm not sure how the price per act would compare vs. Germany, but at least the flight, and probably hotel would be cheap.

Mexico might be another option if you're trying to do this on the cheap, as long as you found a way to do it safely, and not get caught up with minors or cartels.

empatheticapathetic[S] • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 12:33 AM

I live in the UK bruh. Europe is no big deal for me. Prostitution is legal here but it's expensive shit. I wanna just go heavy for 2 weeks straight, can't do that here, would break the bank.

Thailand seems like the Fucking place, but flights aren't cheap, even in advance. If I gotta wait then so be it but I'd like to have some sort of actionable plan to achieve what I'm after.

Maybe Germany or Amsterdam are better options if I can find something more like I'm after. Will look into it.

Style333 • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 02:44 AM

Maybe we should go on a trip together to Thailand or maybe Brazil. I should get time early next year, and I'm sure the trip would be a lot better with company.

empatheticapathetic[S] • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 10:09 AM

Where are you based bro, US I'm guessing? The Tijuana thing sounds pretty good from what I've heard on here but probably expensive for me to get to. Might try the Germany thing first.

anon1moos • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 03:25 AM

I found this while having our discussion, I thought you might be interested if you didn't already know about such things.

empatheticapathetic[S] • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 10:07 AM

Great, I've actually read that before.

Just been looking into it, there's a few and the one in the article seems like one of the lower rated ones.

But anyway this seems like the plan man, quite pumped about it. Cheers for linking that, might make a plan to visit early next year and I'll save up a budget for it.

Style333 • 1 point • 9 October, 2016 02:47 AM

You are exactly right when it comes to various racial stereotyping. If a person is Indian or Asian then often they are automatically screened off by most women. Black men are considered cool though mostly. It's just a further barrier. For instance if a person is only 5ft, then that will be a big barrier to getting a girl, just as being Indian or Asian is a big barrier, no matter how much TRP likes to spin it. TRP can certainly help though.

empatheticapathetic[S] • 2 points • 9 October, 2016 09:42 AM

Yeah. I always thought it was just a symptom of my location. But even in the last few weeks I've been spending time in some major capital cities and it still is just a huge disadvantage. Just annoyed and want to have a plan now, I'm getting older.
