Survival women: This is the last rain water left.

Survival men: Alright men! Turn on the generators, reverse osmosis will desalinate enough sea water for this week.

custardsquare • 27 points • 9 April, 2021 01:38 PM

Men are so fucking awesome when they put their heads together and plan something as a team. Shit gets done.

Different_Vehicle • 26 points • 9 April, 2021 08:03 AM

Absolutely love that series, every feminist should watch it tbh

MGTOWayoflife • 12 points • 9 April, 2021 02:49 PM

Feminist excuses for the show.

Women are so traumatized by the pAy GaP.

The men are sexually assaulting the WomEn.

The women have to go well to with the men to HELp thEM oUT.

Launch_Day_My_Dudes • 4 points • 9 April, 2021 07:07 PM

The men are sexually assaulting the WomEn.

Telepathically, of course. One of the women dreamed she was raped.

silent_hedges • 1 point • 10 April, 2021 11:58 PM*

what would have been awesome if the men had colluded to stay together. I can just see the angry millennial producer, telling them to go help the women, and the men responding, 'No.' The women suffer into hysterical fits as they slide into dehydration and anemia...

[deleted] • 18 points • 9 April, 2021 12:20 PM

It was cheating, those 3 men should not have being traded, "we need no men" should continue until the end of the experiment.

NeverNeverLandIsNow • 7 points • 9 April, 2021 01:37 PM

The women would just give up, you think they would allow themselves to suffer for any real amount of time?

Marfi09 • 18 points • 9 April, 2021 08:26 AM

Wow, good show! Finally I feel like watching tv show again.

There's this saying in my country: men and women aren't competitors but rather they complement each other. Although this doesn't apply to US, but its true.

tilio • 17 points • 9 April, 2021 12:14 PM

the complementing thing has been out the window for a long time. in an effort to free women from the patriarchy, feminism has reduced women's value to men to literally the only thing men can't do ourselves... procreate.

and even that's going the way of the dodo... lots of guys have no interest in children so those guys derive no value from women. and the exponential growth in surrogacy in the last 20 years shows men are now reducing female fertility to a business transaction with a price on it.

Thomasriddle01 • 4 points • 9 April, 2021 02:36 PM

I have read recently that they have made great advancements with artificial wombs and are getting close to them being a reality. Of course they claim that it is all being done in the name of helping older women have babies.

If they perfect that and legalize prostitution in the US, something I wouldn't be surprised to see in the near future. It's already legal in Europe and some places in the US.

If those two things happen, women will have a very rude awakening as men enmasse start avoiding marriage all together.

tilio • 4 points • 9 April, 2021 03:50 PM

men enmasse start avoiding marriage all together.

already happening. marriage rate is the lowest in history and still falling. you have to be a special kind of stupid to get married as a guy... either that or she's fucking rich.

ssstikkk • 4 points • 9 April, 2021 02:06 PM

Thats a lie made by women. The only thing a man cant do is reproduce. Thats what they exist for. Evry religion philosopher great thinker scientist etc has said the same Everything else a woman is deficient at.

Ok-Collection-8948 • 1 point • 9 April, 2021 03:04 PM

That's how it is supposed to be.

It also showed how men are brainwashed to submit to the needs of women because the 2 guys moved to the women's camp became slave of their own initiative.

Nothing would have stopped them to provide only for themselves if they were more skilled and the ladies were sunbathing 24/7

pat-eymsham • 6 points • 9 April, 2021 01:02 PM

This got commented on in another thread, that the comparison was not fair: because the sort of women who applied for this would be the sort who would pose around in their bikinis, looking pretty, getting public exposure, and when they got home, look for stuff like modelling work. Seemed to me, that just proved the point jhooperp • 6 points • 10 April, 2021 01:53 AM

But they don't mention how even the males with six packs who ALSO signed up for a modeling type career and were chosen to be on the show also because of their looks and body for the females who mostly watch these reality shows...also ended up getting along with the other men and worked to contribute to the men society on the island.

But you know facts are out the window when feminists try to make excuses.

pat-eymsham • 1 point • 10 April, 2021 11:13 AM

Indeed. Good point.

Season 1 does not have the "women only" island, they're in season 2+ after the show was accused of being sexist, lmao

Think Before You Sleep (great channel, highly recommend) did a video on this:

Beneficial_Garage • 3 points • 9 April, 2021 01:21 PM

This is a fine example. Of needing to know, what to do in a bad situation. Always have a plan. And, the means to take care of your needs. Something may happen someday where you would need the ability to clean contaminated water. Build a shelter. Or, find something to eat. Don't be like the women and simps. Sitting on the curb waiting for government cheese and a fema trailer.

bft2 • 3 points • 9 April, 2021 03:13 PM

Men would've built a Hadron Collider few weeks later, had they been allowed to stay.

Common-Eye-7594 • 2 points • 9 April, 2021 12:03 PM

To write that article, everything that was used (keyboard, cables, computer parts etc...) was invented by men as in sexually male.

Did they or does somebody boast that inventions are man made so women are unworthy?

No, because only idiots would do it.

By nature it is expected that man are more on the logical side and women are more on the sentimental side (both in a positive light) while complementing each other.

Expections? Sure they are very welcome, I would love to share my time with a girl that does power cycling or likes scientific readings (about anything) and paints.

Another data point is the case of the boys from a Tonganese Catholic boarding school were accidentally stranded for 15 months in the 1960s. They had set up a communal garden, figured out how to store rainwater, raised chickens, built a guitar out of driftwood and steel wire, and built weightlifting and badminton equipment.

Thomasriddle01 • 1 point • 9 April, 2021 02:18 PM

Yeah, I remember that. At least twice the producers had to help the women out to keep their entire group from dying.

Ok-Collection-8948 • 1 point • 9 April, 2021 03:04 PM

I saved the image. Awesome summary and example of female nature.

tetty_morton • 1 point • 9 April, 2021 04:14 PM

I've learnt it's very important to fearlessly to my own way against society and do whatever is necessary for me without fear of looking selfish. Because a better me is a better society.

MGTOWalwaa • 1 point • 9 April, 2021 10:49 PM

In one of these survival programmes I watched, one woman had to be airlifted to hospital for dehydration. Another was taken off the island due to stomach problems.

StayClassySD1 • 1 point • 10 April, 2021 12:50 AM*

What makes this even more hilarious to me is that practically the exact same scenario played out on one of the seasons of Bear Grylls "The island" TV show, It was the only season where they split the groups up by sex. By the end of the show the male island had built a thriving civilization, foraged, fished, even hunted and ate a crocodile, most of them became great mates and had great life changing and once in a lifetime experiences, meanwhile the women squabbled and sunbathed and starved on their respective island lol.

At one point the producers even had to bring in a bunch of pigs and chickens to ""sOmEhOw mYsTeRiOuSIY sHoW uP"" in the female camp for them to eat otherwise the women would have called it quits. Even then i think the women decided to keep the pigs as pets instead of eating them so they continued on the brink of starvation till the end of the show.

Bitcoin_Bastard • 1 point • 10 April, 2021 01:02 PM

You forgot about how they had to send an emergency paramedic to stop them drinking SWAMP WATER FULL OF DEAD ANIMALS THAT WOULD HAVE KILLED THEM IN HOURS

Pakten94 • 1 point • 10 April, 2021 10:51 AM

I don't think anyone with IQ above 50 would ever believe that women actually could run the world without men.
