Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered, weak and weary, over many a quaint and curious profile of a tinder whore while I read it, nearly swiping, suddenly I spied her typing "Kids? Still want them!" starts the griping, "even though I'm 44"

"Tis impossible," I muttered "having kids at 44" Chance of offspring: nevermore

I couldn't help but read that in the voice of Vincent Price.

Some months ago I saw a long version of this that goes through many verses. Can't find it now.
