The real reason is this. Straight white males, especially single ones, are hard to rule. They are the most libertarian demographic, the one most interested in the notion of "human rights", the most independent and self-organizing demographic, the least dependent on government handouts or corporate propaganda, the most inclined to go off and build something for themselves without asking anyone's permission.

So I guess there is a question to be asked:

Why is it that the "straight white man" is like this and "not-straight-white-man-or-woman" not like this?

[deleted] • 111 points • 24 July, 2021 07:21 PM*

Because women are naturally inclined to take orders, and they're taking orders from old rich white men who want to be kings from the ashes of their own demographic

Because women as a sex have no loyalty or obligation towards losers. They're only interested in who wins this culture war.

If "white males" lose this battle, it simply means they're no longer fit for this world when it comes to survival. And as far as a woman's preferences go, what else needs to be said?

GayLubeOil • 87 points • 25 July, 2021 04:21 AM

Women only care about control, and they will do anything anyone tells them to do if they think it will get them control.

Every woman politician treats the people she rules over like children. The only concept of authority a woman has the capacity to exercise is that of a mother controlling children.

PatternEast7185 • 52 points • 25 July, 2021 05:56 PM

ya women are weird like that. they're attracted to men they can't control and will do everything they can to lock that man down.. but once they do they lose respect for him and feel anxious again. but if they can't lock that guy down, they hate that guy too, becuz he wouldn't let her control him.

i can understand why even the Buddha advised his monks to leave women behind lol... he said it would be better to put your cock in a snake's mouth than to give your seed to a woman. it's hilarious how Lulu-lemon feminists have co-opted Buddhism as a fashion symbol, when he would have told them to put their clothes back on and stop being sluts lol.

hahaha great meme.

The original Buddha was not quite as hardcore on the Women Question as the sages in this meme, but he understood them enough to disallow them to practice with his male monks. If women were to practice Buddhism as nuns, they had their own special sets of laws to follow.

But he did say a few spicy things too.

It seems that in all Traditions there is the observation that women have less self-control, less self-awareness, less honesty, less capability for abstract thinking, and are less capable of standing as true Sovereigns. Coincidence?

[deleted] • 11 points • 4 August, 2021 04:11 PM

There's a meme somewhere of a woman wearing a low crop top standing in front of a sworn-to-celibacy monk who has never seen tits before and you can see she takes great pride in knowing she's essentially ruined his life.

Edit I found it <https://i.imgur.com/ZPJTsmF.jpg>

This is why I dislike women, they have no respect for men. They act like children, have all the responsibility of children, yet all the power of adults. In some cases more power than men, thanks to pozzed courts.

PatternEast7185 • 15 points • 4 August, 2021 05:57 PM

ya 100%.. men can absolutely be evil bastards but it seems like women get off on cruelty and disruption for its own sake.

i get bitchy about Buddhism in particular becuz my ex and her mom were both self-professed Buddhists.. my ex even did a 7-day Vipassana fasting meditation when she was in India. But that sure as fuck didn't stop her from cheating on me, and her mom showed zero sympathy for me despite all of the problems that her daughter had caused me in the fallout. being a "Buddhist" didn't actually mean or imply anything tangible when it came to actual real life.

so ya i have a personal grudge against female buddhists tbh. it's not fair to condemn them all but how can i take them seriously when so many women treat it as a fashion statement.

[deleted] • 7 points • 4 August, 2021 06:34 PM

Because for women it IS a fashion statement.

I go to a local buddhism group and it's about 70% men and 30% women, there's a few post wall's there who take it seriously but there's also a few young women. The young ones all have the latest iPhones and jewelry and try to show it off, they also have buddhist and sacred geometry related tattoo's. They spend the whole class telling us how Buddhist they are, yet unlike everyone else, they never ask any questions regarding sitting experiences. One of them even admitted that the once a week class is the only time she meditates. The rest of us do between an hour and 12 hours a day of seated meditation.

I never tell anyone I'm a buddhist, I don't believe in labels like that as they lead to duality, instead I just do the practices. I've been doing meditation for 8 years, it is my primary practice, I regularly dwell in the latter formless jhanas, Buddhism is just a good framework for daily life but I don't agree with a lot of it, especially Karma, in fact I consider reality more of a cross between symbolically interpreted Christianity + Gnosticism.

Buddhism for a lot of women is a cool virtue signalling label they can apply to themselves whilst not actually applying to their life. I go for some advice but I mainly go because it's a great place to observe modern ~~trainwrecks~~ women in a place where they don't get any special treatment for being women.

Ask these women what the 8 fold path principles are and watch them stutter as they try to figure them out, having not read the texts, not listened in the classes, not done the work...

PatternEast7185 • 11 points • 4 August, 2021 06:58 PM

ah.. a man of culture i see..

ya u understand exactly what i'm getting at.

a red-pilled Buddhist!!! Namaste my dude :D

my cousin is like that actually.. she's incredibly "spiritual", to the point of telling everybody all the time, but she can't help herself when it comes to earning more money, owning the nicest things, and even being judgmental of ppl that she thinks are financially beneath her.

it must be a very strange experience to be a woman.

MisterNavit • 6 points • 10 August, 2021 10:20 PM

I am by no means religious. In fact I think religion inspires blind faith and weakness. That said, I really admire whoever wrote the story with the snake and the apple of eden. The symbiosis between women and evil is flawless.

PatternEast7185 • 3 points • 11 August, 2021 12:31 AM ya agree.. and there is the sense in the Adam and Eve story imo that she rly didn't understand the implications of what she was doing.

MisterNavit • 5 points • 11 August, 2021 12:34 AM

Yeah, she did. They all do. They just don't care, because in their minds they're never wrong.

PatternEast7185 • 6 points • 11 August, 2021 01:08 AM

it's a crazy thing to realize WHY all advanced societies had to be patriarchal...

[deleted] • 33 points • 25 July, 2021 04:24 AM

Women only care about control, and they will do anything anyone tells them to do if they think it will get them control.

Makes sense. Considering their low testosterone probably attributes towards their weak will and high levels of anxiety. They either need to be in charge or have someone leading them around like a trained dog on a leash, not surprising they are resorting to taking the reins Considering how gay and milk toast men are today as a demographic

There is the morally right decision and the easy decision. Women will always take the easy decision, because to use your phrasing they have high levels on anxiety and are easily bullied into compliance.

Kamala Harris is known as "heals up Harris" in California legal circles because of what she did to get to the top. This kind of whoring guarantees stability and compliance for those on top. Not to mention that a blackmailable asset is a controllable asset.

[deleted] • 25 points • 25 July, 2021 04:34 AM

It probably boils down to the fact that humans (and pretty much all animals to an extent) are conditioned to spend the least amount of calories for the maximum amount of return. So it only makes sense from a biological perspective that the "path of least resistance" would be the most obvious one to someone without a clear ability to forward think, which women are famous for lacking. Women are just big walking incubators after all, so they pretty much do everything less efficient than a man when it comes to industrious behavior and habits.

Survival was by razor thin margins before the last 200 years. It was tough to survive and so people needed to be efficient with their habits and lifestyle.

MisterNavit • 4 points • 10 August, 2021 10:28 PM

Kamala Harris is known as "heals up Harris" in California legal circles because of what she did to get to the top.

I remember when I found this out I spit my coffee from incontrollable, hysterical laughter. I can't believe Americans allowed a whore, a fucking prostitute, to take control of their country. Americans really have no self respect. At this point, even China starts looking like a better prospect.

JamesSkepp • 9 points • 24 July, 2021 07:44 PM

Because women are naturally inclined to take orders, and they're taking orders from old rich white men who want to be kings from the ashes of their own demographic

Perhaps that's one of the reasons, however that's not really the answer I'm looking for.

I want to try to find a common denominator in the second group, regardless of gender, assuming one exists as an underlying cause not merely as unrelated coincidence.

[deleted] • 20 points • 24 July, 2021 08:44 PM*

Ah okay. I believe a good start to answering your question is the fact that "white women" as a culture are basically mentally ill due to their virtually unlimited access to resources coupled with their ability to infiltrate political mechanisms that heavily dictates culture. America was predominately homogeneous as far as race goes and extreme wealth is built over generations. I imagine we'd run into the same problem regardless of race whether it be Indian or black women etc. "White women" just got here first and humans as a species like to categorize themselves off of easily identifiable traits, just so happens its skin color that's simplest.

The breakdown of marriage also has a disproportionate effect on the fact that "white" women who are already "privileged" have the most freetime and resources to focus on their default quest of making things "more equitable" because they cannot compete against men who get more, generally speaking.

Also add in the fact that women as a demographic are largely not held accountable for their actions and are largely unable to be reasoned with without proper training, well, there's just a lot in the pudding.

Because women are not held accountable for their actions, they're basically overgrown, spoiled children. And we already know that children are born selfish for survival purposes.

I feel like it's a problem that will solve itself so I don't worry too much about the outcome either way. Whoever wins the battle, I plan on being on the winning side regardless.

ItsDantesWorld • 9 points • 24 July, 2021 09:35 PM

If the winning side requires you to be rendered infertile, and you side with them, how did you win?

[deleted] • 14 points • 24 July, 2021 09:46 PM

Well, when I'm talking about winners and losers, I'm not talking about the sides that are currently fighting. When Rome fell, it was the peasants who won, and the rest of the ruling class that lost.

The winners will be those with autonomy. Those who built up their own life and didn't overextend themselves while depending on others.

The losers will be those who gave up their autonomy. Those who became ideological possessed and who surrendered their agency to "save the world." Remember, both sides have painted themselves as heroes trying to save the world.

ItsDantesWorld • 3 points • 24 July, 2021 09:47 PM

The peasants won and the entire civilization was lost. Sounds like a historical L to me.

Same here. If the side that wins demands your castration, not sure how that could qualify as a win.

[deleted] • 4 points • 24 July, 2021 10:05 PM

They're already demanding our castration, AFTSOV. Believe me, the "tradcon" side doesn't have any better of intentions for you than the Marxist feminist side.

ItsDantesWorld • 5 points • 24 July, 2021 10:07 PM

I don't think the Trads want to castrate men. But if both sides do, then it really is Lose-lose

JamesSkepp • 8 points • 24 July, 2021 11:07 PM

If we only focus on the m-f part of the discussion for a moment, tradcon shares 50% of guilt for current treatment of man with rampant feminism.

First of all, tradcon has very strong BP underlying tones. You must marry. No premarital sex. Do it for the children. Happy wife happy life. Buy a house, plant the flag, mow the lawn.

Secondly by insisting on "oppressing" women (which in fact boiled down to keeping them confined to what tradcon considered woman's role or job) despite women gaining same civil status as men it led to frustration (visible discrepancy between what is and what ought to be and the inability to change it) which has tendency to build up and explode/escalate as reaction to the buildup, which it did - from suffragettes demanding pretty mild things into modern feminism in late 50s' demanding free love into "kill all men" few years ago.

Tradcon is not a solution, tradcon is a cause.

[deleted] • 5 points • 24 July, 2021 10:08 PM

Why would they castrate their best and most productive livestock? Those taxes won't pay themselves.

redpillschool • 1 point • 28 July, 2021 03:22 PM

They just want to saddle men with a bad deal.

JamesSkepp • 4 points • 24 July, 2021 09:00 PM

You're not wrong about women, however what does your argument have in common with black men or LGBT, two most notable subgroups of "non straight white males"?

[deleted] • 18 points • 24 July, 2021 09:15 PM*

It's hard for me to say with any certainty, except that blacks as a demographic probably have a weak culture and are a minority by numbers (clearly), so they will suffer more due to circumstances but not because they lack opportunity. They simply don't have the IQ as a collective group which leads them unable to make the right moves to seize the opportunities.

Basically, blacks aren't as "domesticated" as whites.

As far as LGBTQetc, my theory is they suffer from mental illness from poor diet and environment. It's hard to say, but basically they're genetic drift that would normally be weeded out in harsher times due to circumstances, but because "rising tide raises all ships" they not only get to survive, but in some cases prosper. I imagine back in the day before agriculture, not many hunter gatherers concerned themselves with their own pronouns and gender identity.

In either case, blacks and lgtq probably don't support the "feminist" causes nearly as much as is made out. I'd venture to say not even a simple majority even.

noTourist64 • 5 points • 25 July, 2021 09:45 PM

Basically, blacks aren't as "domesticated" as whites.

Wrong way around. Domestication is erasure of identity. Blacks are the ones that most identify with their racial group. They are fully aware of the fact that they belong to it and they work towards furthering their own racial interests -i.e., territorial domination, being exempt from the law-.

I guess the most common denominating factor is that taking from others is always simpler than trading for it. The path of least resistance for these groups is to simply lower the bar rather than trying to rise up to the challenge. That challenge being life. Humans have been enslaving other humans in New and creative ways since forever.

This, however, is true. It's easier for minorities to gain power through state-sponsored apologetics. And the state itself is not anti-white or anti-male per se -that is, the people actually engaging in international business, not the NPCs-, but anti-identity. White men are simply the only ones that dare stand against it.

ItsDantesWorld2 points 28 July, 2021 05:12 AM [recovered]

90% of black people I know have no idea who they are or where they are from. They identify with being loud, ghetto, and "black." With no cultural identity beyond that.

Sure. We could all see the world class IQ on display when a bunch of angry white cry baby sore losers stormed the capitol after their big baby orangutan for a leader cried after getting pummeled at the ballots. The place was just filled with geniuses on that day.

HotConclusion0 • 8 points • 27 July, 2021 06:39 AM*

The point is that dumb racists with low IQ shouldn't think they're smarter than other people who don't look like them, but it's clear that point went over both your collective dead brain on display. There are both dumb whites and blacks with low IQ, and i put both of you in the same category of dumb whites or whatever it is that you are. Assuming you know anything about where i stand with vaccines and masks only further proves my point.

The point is that dumb racists with low IQ what does being a racist have anything to do with low IQ? I know extremely intelligent racists, as well as extremely dumb "anti-racists" (I've put quotation marks because they are actually racists but too dumb to recognize it, since they endorse equality of outcome, affirmative action and similar discriminatory practices).

StarWarsJunkie1 • 2 points • 24 July, 2021 08:52 PM

its going to resolve in a way that does area effect damage. Whomever wins the battle, you lose.

[deleted] • 9 points • 24 July, 2021 08:57 PM

I do not care, and you shouldn't either. Carve out and secure your own existence rather than dooming it up chicken little style. You were losing in the old world, and you'll lose in the new world too. The only thing that can change that is your individual quest to succeed.

StarWarsJunkie1 • 7 points • 24 July, 2021 09:01 PM*

I disagree but I'm already setup in 3 other countries beyond my own and I haven't stopped winning yet. Your individual quest to succeed is highly dependent on your ability to exist in a conducive society. I lost in the old world and made massive gains in the new one. Why would I be writing this at all if I hadn't? I would take your point of view and tell everyone to stay home in a bunker with a home gym and just wait it out. Then I would tell everyone that it doesn't matter if you get married or not because life is all about you. But I don't because that is bullshit and every red pill can contribute 10x the amount in a place where people appreciate them and give them resources and want them to join the family. My purpose here is to continue to build my network, I won't get the majority but the few I do get will be worth it in the end, its the same on every forum.

You either acknowledge that the western world is falling apart or you pretend that you can hedonistically live a singleton forever. Spoiler alert, you can't. If you watched what happened to the PUAs during the 2000's you'll know 'they' will enact laws against you, eventually you'll be a prisoner in your own home.... an incel... a redpill.

This is not chicken little and if you leave the bubble you'll see it for yourself.

JamesSkepp • 8 points • 24 July, 2021 10:42 PM

1. You're making a mistake in your general approach. You think that you are "moving from West to a non-cucked country", while in fact what you're doing is ceding territory in hope of trading space for time.
2. That's not going to work on the large scale b/c 99,999% people are not going to move to shithole countries or become nomad capitalists, thus your individual move is not going to make that country stronger or more resilient to negative change.
3. Another reason is that the ideology (not only ideology, but let's call it that for the sake of simplicity) you're fleeing is, for the most part, not bottom up but top down. It means it's being installed regardless of the wishes or political alignment of the population. Just look at the US, despite all the doom and gloom, majority of the people, even the non-radical Dems don't want it. Proof of this is top down cancel culture, censorship and propaganda - you don't need all that if you're winning the popularity contest.
4. So while you want to go were your're treated best(TM), you're actually allowing the other side to take the territory unopposed thus making it grow stronger at no cost. This in effect is expediting the timeframe for the ideology to move to take over another country, and the list of countries grows shorter, not longer.
5. IOW you cede teritorry but don't gain the time, on the contrary you're speeding up your demise.

StarWarsJunkie1 • 5 points • 24 July, 2021 11:38 PM

I hate to break it to you man but from my perspective, the USA, IS a shithole country. I'm not american btw.

And the other side already has the territory. Hey man if you want to stay here in the insane asylum, no one is stopping you. I don't intend to wait around for the crazies to come knocking though.

JamesSkepp • 1 point • 24 July, 2021 11:59 PM

So basically your plan boils down to running away from conflict and waiting it out or waiting for others to do the job for you. Man worth following.

[deleted] • 4 points • 24 July, 2021 09:21 PM

Alright. I really don't know what your point is. Its up to each individual to create their own goals, and develop their own skills using tools they've learned here to make their dreams into a reality.

The journey is more important than the destination. Imagine emotionally masturbating about a culture war that you didn't start, for a potential world that doesn't care about you, for a past world that also didn't care about you.

Their goal is simple: to control you.

The way you win is by... not letting them control you. Its that simple.

StarWarsJunkie1 • 3 points • 24 July, 2021 09:23 PM

For a future world that will. My point escapes you because my network are my tools and the 3rd world is my tapestry. The better the tools the more beautiful the gallery.

[deleted] • 3 points • 24 July, 2021 09:30 PM

That future world that you're day dreaming about will never happen unless you work for it so my point still stands... i get where you're coming from but let me tell you, its kind of a dead end. You would be more productive for yourself by moving beyond the "changing/saving the world" mindset.

Any time or effort you spend trying to save or change the world is better spend on improving your own position and saving yourself. Nobody is talking about bunkers either.

The problems you're concerned with is a problem that doesn't really exist. Laws don't kill people or take liberty away, people do.

And people can be shot.

There's something to this. The black people in the US are the descendents of several generations of slaves. There's a comedy skit about black slaves at auction telling themselves about how they're going to take down their master or escape. No one buys them.

And that's without getting into the selection process for whom ends up a slave in the first place.

They said you can't talk about this for morals reason. Well ok. But now they're using your morality to beat you with and rewarding people who don't have your morality.

ItsDantesWorld • 5 points • 24 July, 2021 08:19 PM

Women can be fanatical in support of their men.

One problem is American women, or white women, don't support their men.

What is considered white? Are Iberians considered white because they're European? What about the italians or other Latin descendents?

Or is white strictly anglos and Scandinavians?

ShadowKnight324 • 5 points • 24 July, 2021 11:29 PM

Often when one (one with power) wishes to polarizes a people they find a way to strictly classify it's population or populations in general even if some don't share exact traits an will demonize one or more of this classes of people just to distract the predominant class of it's country from actual problems and or the constant hornding of power of those in charge.

You can see these examples executed by the nazi in Germany, the comunist in USSR or even in any dictatorial country that existed modern history to some extent.

One can even see this in the political climate of the US were basically only 2 partys seem to dominant the government.

Al thought you should not take my word because I'm not from the US and don't have first hand experience with it's political climate or care to much about it.

This question is interesting, but not necessary.

It doesn't matter to the purposes of Upside Down Clown World (UDCW) just why young white males are the most libertarian demographic on the planet. It suffices to be aware that they are. The leaders and driving forces of UDCW may not be super deep thinkers, but they can certainly read poll data. That alone suffices to tell them what is in their best interests.

If I, personally, had to hazard an educated guess as to why young white males are the most libertarian, I would say that they are the demographic which benefits the state the most, but benefits least from the state. Therefore it is in their best interests to disempower the state, and in the state's best interest to disempower them.

JamesSkepp • 3 points • 25 July, 2021 08:03 AM

It doesn't matter to the purposes of Upside Down Clown World (UDCW) just why young white males are the most libertarian demographic on the planet. It suffices to be aware that they are.

That does make sense if you assume it's all being pushed top down primarily and the seemingly bottom up movements are either numerically insignificant or are in fact sponsored active actors.

There is always a small percentage of loud and useful idiots.

adam-1 • 20 points • 25 July, 2021 04:40 AM

It's not.

The simple answer is that we now have the conditions that allow capitalism a full-on attack against the middle class, and the middle class is predominantly white. That's why that attack has taken an anti-white flavor.

What are these conditions?

1. The Soviet Union has collapsed, no external pressure, so Western capitalism feels free to expand - towards the inside this time.
2. The Left has been crushed, no internal opposition. What is called "Left" in the US is actually called Right in Europe and elsewhere in the world. What remained of the Left has been successfully turned from class-oriented to gender-oriented.
3. Labor has moved towards the service sector, and can now be done by women, who only have gender conscience, preventing them from developing class consciousness. So they (women) are seen as a golden opportunity to replace the middle class as the system's cushion against the plebs, more cheaply for the system, and supporting more reliably the trashy consumerism.

The middle class is now experiencing what the lower classes did in the previous decades. Being middle class, i.e. lacking class consciousness, it's unable to see the class dimension, and only sees the woke cover.

JamesSkepp • 5 points • 25 July, 2021 08:16 AM

The simple answer is that we now have the conditions that allow capitalism a full-on attack against the middle class, and the middle class is predominantly white.

And the women are excluded from any harm as usual, in which case the "straight white male" is the main demographic left.

preventing them from developing class consciousness. So they (women) are seen as a golden opportunity to replace the middle class as the system's cushion against the plebs

Women only pursue "class conscioussess" near the Wall, which manifests in marrying up and seeking status, but doesn't undo the harm of "voting Demcorats" in their 20s. Also worth noting that if that's what's happeing the cusion you mentioned is made out of post Wall women retaining middle (or higher) class status by attaching themselves to the men who have that status already. Amazing progress for the independence and empowerment.

Protocol_Apollo • 10 points • 24 July, 2021 08:27 PM

The real reason is this. Straight white males, especially single ones, are hard to rule.
why?

The answer to your question is a curious one but you would be committing a racism, a sexism, a transphobia and a homophobia all at the same time!

JamesSkepp • 3 points • 24 July, 2021 08:53 PM

I agree your answer is highly probable as main reason, or at least very important.

However, this is not the answer I'm looking for either. The more I think about this general issue Whisper wrote about, the more come to the conclusion that I'm missing something here, or perhaps I keep seeing the answer but can't really name it or place it exactly as to gain understanding not just knowledge.

[deleted] • 4 points • 24 July, 2021 11:31 PM*

I believe the answer to your question is an aggregate of the answers to the smaller questions: right place, right time, etc. Its almost like asking why did life come into existence? We know the how, but we're not exactly sure of the why beyond a primitive basic level.

We do know that humans as a species struggled since the beginning to simply survive. For the first time in history, we as a species have all but secured our existence and virtually ended the struggle for survival.

In the absence of the overbearing, hard and unforgiving nature of simple survival, we're left with a new problem. Finding meaning in life.

Many of the problems we face today is the probably a large part due to people having no real meaning in surviving, and need a reason: an enemy, a cause, a mission, to keep pushing forward.

We're basically left in a sand box with all the tools and the knowledge needed to build whatever we want, now the question is: what do we build? Out of 7 billion people, there was bound to be more than a few very rich and very powerful people that decided they need more stuff just because they have nothing better to do, literally. I mean, when you can wipe your ass with a few hundred dollar bills on a golden toilet seat, the question then goes from "why" to "why not?"

Why is this happening? Well, why not?

BlondeHornyElf • 3 points • 28 July, 2021 03:50 PM

in state of nature, men gain power/freedom through economic independence and sovereignty, but women gain power through the protection and favor of men.

and when women do have the opportunity to gain independence and sovereignty, they still go on to look for men more powerful than themselves to give themselves to.

it is rare that powerful women choose to care for and look after men just for their companionship. women's instinct is always to weed out weak men and become popular with more powerful men.

TheRedPillKing • 2 points • 25 July, 2021 01:17 PM

The biggest reason why men couldn't shut down feminism even when it is an anti-male group is because of just one reason - Men NEVER EVER unite.

In this thread itself, you can see two opinions.

- 1, White men are beta
- 2, Black men are beta

Perhaps on an Arab community, it'd be like "White men and black men are pussies"

If we've to move forward, we need to unite - Brown, Black, White, Yellow, Bi, Gay, Straight, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Atheist, Sikh, First world, second world, Third world and fourth world.

Divided we fall.

Detail_Mission • 1 point • 13 August, 2021 12:34 AM

1.) Due to multiculturalism we can and we will never unite. Multiculturalism was the pushed by zionists and they were successfull and it's the country's greatest weakness.

2.) Zionist Je ws make the currency and make the rules. They control the corrupt courts as well. Even if we could magically unite our efforts would be in vain and futile.

This country was at it's best pre rights for women and pre central bank. Women have voted for the genocide of the white men and for their sexual liberation which has destroyed the family.

There is no turning this mess back. The entire country would need to collapse and start over again.

Novel-Scar-7262 • 1 point • 24 August, 2021 01:41 PM

I do not think it is due to multiculturalism. If it were due to multiculturalism, women would have been divided by now into a million pieces.

If anything, multiculturalism just united them even more and this goes beyond countries and cultures. Men are still thinking countries, states and even provinces.

The reason is men believe they can win the gang war without a gang because they are stronger, wealthier and more intelligent.

The Lions need to understand that, despite being so strong, it will never be able to stand against so many Hyenas at once for a long time and even if it can, it's far better to attack them with your gang members because that'd be much easier.

kmderssg • 6 points • 13 August, 2021 06:02 AM

Anybody with a middle school education would that know that even a tiny evolutionary change takes tens of thousands of years at the minimum.

Suggesting that a couple hundred years of slavery "left an evolutionary imprint" is about the most uneducated thing I've read in months.

Not to mention that such premise falls apart by the fact that the places white people held in slavery were extremely limited, when looking at it from a global scope. Which, again, would be apparent to anyone who passed their middle school history class.

If you think that's the "truth", and people aren't saying out loud because "they can't handle it", then I sincerely worry what other "truths" you believe in that can be easily refuted with the most basic level of education.

Go back to school.

Polyzoop • 3 points • 15 August, 2021 03:18 AM

You're wrong. Substantial evolutionary changes can occur in extremely short spans of time in evolutionary terms. It just depends on what kinds of selection pressures are at play. A widely accepted theory for why Jews have such high average IQs is that they were so discriminated against over the past 2,000 years that only the smart ones could thrive in the white collar positions they were forced to take.

His theory is trash, but you aren't any more educated.

kmderssg • 2 points • 15 August, 2021 05:06 AM

A widely accepted theory for why Jews have such high average IQs is that they were so discriminated against over the past 2,000 years that only the smart ones could thrive in the white collar positions they were forced to take.

The paper, "Natural history of Ashkenazi intelligence", from which the hypothesis originates, is a non-peer reviewed paper that's been highly disputed since its initial publishing in 2005. The hypothesis is not "widely accepted" at all. Unless you're talking about a different paper - in which case, I'd love to see a source.

Substantial evolutionary changes can occur in extremely short spans of time in evolutionary terms.

Well, TIL. Could you provide me some readings so that I could correct myself? Can't seem to find much with my googling skills.

Polyzoop • 3 points • 15 August, 2021 03:09 PM*

Perhaps "widely considered as a possible explanation for Jewish IQ" would be a better way of putting it. But there is a more obvious example that should drive the point home: <https://www.sciencenewsforstudents.org/article/how-moth-went-dark-side>

If the generational turnover and selection pressure are high enough big changes can occur within months or years. While it does take a long time for new traits to emerge, especially so if they are complex, changes in genetic frequency can happen in very short spans of time. If you imagine a population that has great genetic diversity very suddenly slamming up against a filter, you can see very clearly how the average individual could change greatly in a short amount of time.

kmderssg • 1 point • 16 August, 2021 05:25 PM

The moth changing their dominant colors in just a few decades in correspondence to its environment is fascinating.

Makes me wonder what kind of effect "jumping genes" have between human generations. Although my estimate would be that any noticeable change for humans would still take comparatively much more time (thousands of years), as moths lay hundreds of eggs at a time, and have a generation turnover period of about a month - compared to that of humans, which typically have one or two offsprings, and 20~30 year of turnover period.

Thank you for the great read.

lala_xyz • 3 points • 14 August, 2021 09:50 AM

My theory is non white races were mostly used as workers or slaves long back by whites.

no they didn't, whites diverged genetically 45-50k years ago from Africans, and Asians about 35k years ago. there was almost no interaction between races across continents until few centuries ago because human mobility was very low. blacks also are extremely divergent internally and not a single "race"

SirFrancisDrake2020 • 0 points • 20 August, 2021 03:41 PM

There was plenty of mixture in some areas, as in parts of North Africa there were white people living near to black people. The Ancient Egyptians for example conquered the Nubians. In Central Asia there were also white and East Asian people living in some of the same areas.

lala_xyz • 1 point • 20 August, 2021 04:46 PM

Aborigines, European Whites and Asians underwent completely separate evolutions for 30-50k, depending on the date of their initial migration. Later migrations and intermixing in the historical period obscured the picture a bit, but the evolution was almost 100% isolated. There was also a lot of splits and admixings within the continental race, but there was next to none contacts between continental races. In the border areas of course there would be "transitional" races, those didn't impact the overall gene flow.

SirFrancisDrake2020 • 1 point • 21 August, 2021 11:35 PM

Yes that's true, until the bronze age there was very little mixing going on, and even after that there was no direct contact in many regions for a long time. Of course the Aborigines were cut off from all other groups for at least 40k years.

sabanMiles11 • 50 points • 25 July, 2021 05:29 AM

I view communism as a sexual strategy. How can women fuck alpha genes (top 5 percenters) but still have the resources to raise the alphas children? Enslave 80-95 percent of the male population to pay for it. That is the ultimate goal.

I'm not black, but I've lived in black areas before. They vote liberal, but they are the least "woke" demographic I've come across by far, especially in urban areas. White men in urban areas are pretty fucking beta. Especially the northeast and west coast. Philly and NYC definitely have outliers, but the tech hubs generally produce wokeness

This is really strong men and traditional women (small, but they do exist) vs weak men and women.

Weak men are essentially so weak that the only way they can ever even smell a pussy is by essentially becoming a feminist. Jordan Peterson and joe Rogan have talked about this before. These are men that have run out of options and are essentially white knighting in order to get laid. Sadly, that's a very large proportion of men today. Couple that with women wanting alpha seed, you get what we see today.

That's why many countries in Western Europe make paternity tests illegal. They know that alphas are spreading the seed and the betas are living a lie, but they don't want to "ruin families." If these men woke up and realized they were raising another dudes kid, there would be large scale revolts.

Capitalism makes sense as a sexual strategy for men simply because you are responsible for your actions and reap what you sow. If you fuck a woman and have her children, you have to pay. But it comes with the reward of you actually having your own kids.

sepan5 • 2 points • 25 July, 2021 12:44 PM

So those Western European countries you are talking about are not capitalists?

sabanMiles11 • 18 points • 25 July, 2021 04:31 PM

I don't get your point? If I wanted to live in an anarcho capitalist society, I wouldn't just get my way because I wanted it. The fact that we are seeing large scale changes towards "socialism" is because of this reason. It takes time. But it's not a coincidence that rampant feminism pushes towards communism. I've already read insane articles from feminists where they literally want government tribunals selecting 10-12 year old boys and categorizing them into 3 categories. A. Will reproduce B. Won't reproduce C. Maybe.

sepan5 • 1 point • 25 July, 2021 05:58 PM

The fact that people took this essay as a launching point to bitch and moan about every evil empire imaginable (feminists, amirite?) and not as a chance to swap notes about what possible winning scenarios would be tells me most guys haven't caught onto the fucking point.

Great, 'they' are out to get you, or whatever. So what you gonna do about it? Bitching was the MRA playbook, and it's been working horribly for the last 50 years.

Some easy solutions

1. Expatriation
2. Turn your personal entrepreneurial endeavor into a full time one
3. Reduce your debt profile (though with inflation the way it is, you could probably just inflate it into nothingness, but I don't prefer to play teh recession game, so you go you)
4. Women are still women. Get in a position where girls with potential want you, and then start with boundary enforcement. Hypergamous women like their hypergamous best option. if it's you, they become happy with boundaries (making you happy)

5. Position yourself financially for the most options.

I mean, uncle vas has been talking about it for years, yet still, people in here using the same old complaints. The roadmap is here, just gotta start using it. I am and each year gets better

ItsDantesWorld • 2 points • 25 July, 2021 02:20 AM

Would you elaborate on inflation into nothingness?

RStonePT • 11 points • 25 July, 2021 02:34 AM

If you take on debt to buy an asset (house, business etc) the value of the dollar decreases as a consequence of inflation (1.00 with .98 with 2% inflation e.g.)

The idea is then you take on X amount of debt, which because of inflation is worth less in real terms. One of the prime reasons that real estate is a good investment is because it's a hedge against inflation.

It's not that easy, but that's the econ 101 way to look at it. And if you are taking on debt buying revenue generating assets, it's both good in that the asset pays its own interest/capital expenses, but also keeps your money to losing value from inflation

ItsDantesWorld • 1 point • 27 July, 2021 05:48 PM

Well, let's say I have 1$ in the bank.

Because of inflation, that 1$ is actually .95 cents

Applied to debt; if I am 100$ in debt, and I'm paying 1 dollar a month, doesn't that mean I'm actually paying .95 cents a month, meaning my debt is actually growing because of inflation, despite the number on my statements remaining the same?

__fulpp__ • 4 points • 28 July, 2021 01:12 PM

Say you buy a house for 100k and you somehow don't have to pay anything for the first year. In a year it's worth say 110k due to inflation, but your principal debt is still 100k. You now own an asset worth 110k, and you only owe the bank 100k.

While inflation is higher than the interest rate of your loan, you gain. Reason being the dollar amount of your debt is fixed, while what you can get with that money can decrease (inflation) or increase (deflation). Interest rates are how financial institutions deal with this, but if you can get a fixed rate loan at a low % interest you're playing the inflation card. I'm young, so I don't know of any deflationary periods in recent memory.

Currency can fluctuate, but value is more robust. A dollar amount is less a measure of actual value, more a rough measure of the macro-economic situation at a given time.

RStonePT • 2 points • 28 July, 2021 09:22 AM

Other way around, the 100 in debt is worth 95 with inflation.

This is of course assuming you can earn with inflation proof assets, because if you're just working a job, you'll be earning 95 cents on the dollar also

FrenCan16 • 2 points • 28 July, 2021 01:57 PM

If you have long duration debt, inflation shrinks that debt over the years. If inflation is running at 10% per annum, in year two your income should go up 10% roughly (I know BIG assumption, I'm also using round numbers), but the debt stays nominally the same amount you borrowed, only accruing interest. In an inflationary environment, debt becomes easier to service over time.

RStonePT • 6 points • 25 July, 2021 02:35 AM

I disagree. If I had to classify it, it's a call to action.

Of course it is going to reflect the readers sensibilities more than the writers.

Here's an example of what I'm talking about

Is Baldwin's character a jerk or a savior? The genius of the story is that half of you will have completely misunderstood it, and you like mint chutney and food stamps. The secret is at the beginning, at 0:15, where it is revealed that Alec Baldwin doesn't feel any of this, the whole speech is a work. If you were in that room, some of you would understand this as a work, but feed off the energy of the message anyway, welcome the coach's cursing at you, "this guy is awesome!"; while some of you would take it personally, this guy is a jerk, you have no right to talk to me like that, or-- the standard maneuver when narcissism is confronted with a greater power-- quietly seethe and fantasize about finding information that will out him as a hypocrite. So satisfying.

You can't just "not play the game," the game will be brought to you and you will be forced to play.

thegreyone3000 • 4 points • 25 July, 2021 07:21 AM

I think what I said was taken a bit too literal. Of course you can't not play "the game" but what I mean was simply not take part in half the shit in it, for example. Netflix isn't essential to your survival, and neither is keeping up to date with the latest iPhone, Apple Watch and other dog shit that company crates each year just to please it's share holders.. being the "most valued" company in the world isn't a breeze after all is it. Imagine a company being worth over $2T for making smart phones, like yeah, such value there.....

That should clear that up

Gackt • 2 points • 5 August, 2021 03:11 PM

A lot is forced upon us, I know. but

1. No one is forced to marry.
2. System still provides ways to not be a wagecuck.
3. If said ways net you less than a certain a month of income, you can move abroad and enjoy the foreignmaxx and cheaper cost of living + higher status because you will be a top 1% out there with just $40k a year or so. etc

Trigger Warning: Unpopular opinion ahead.

The author of that article will eventually be in jail and if you take his advice you will be right there with him. Americans, your guns will not save you. The only thing standing between you and them is time.

There is no fighting back, if you are reading this you are the resistance and it is your job to get to safety and preserve the last bits of civilization to share with your new host civilization... You will be tasked with re-building whatever bits you take with you and taking short jaunts into the matrix to pull out others. There is no mass rejection or battle or any of that coming. If you resist, you will GO TO JAIL and then you will be forgotten. Americans have deluded themselves into believing that they have some semblance of freedom. They [the people in control] can identify you, put you on a list and banish you from society the moment you become 'problematic'.

There is NO rescue coming, there is no fighting back [notice trump didn't bother to save his followers], the only thing you can do at this point is gather up as many resources as you can and get the fuck out of the country. Look around at the number of 'China towns' that popped up over the last 50 years. These are the smart people, the ones who knew what was going down in China. Now its our turn to go abroad and create America towns. Society is cyclical and we are in the point just before the big drop off. Yes you have to move, no that will not be stable forever, yes either you or someone in your lineage will eventually have to move again.

There will be no resistance because social justice isn't new. Everyone in this country has latent feminism in them and when you go to leave, your network of 'resistance' buddies will interfere and their brainwashing will kick in. You can see it here

"I'm not leaving the West"

"I don't want to speak some 'assholes' language"

Laziness and cowardice will manifest and try and drag you down to their point.

As if the West is some shining jewel of democracy and freedom, it isn't. At this point the Chinese have more freedom than us, that should tell you where we are and how much time you have left. And no, you can't hide in the West among 'trades and tradcons', they will turn on you the moment their women tell them to or they will drag you down into their pit of loneliness, they aren't red pill, they are just ignorant. Eventually the same people who rule over the corporate sector will make their way into the trades and you will be at their mercy. They will take your land from under you, shut off your water and electricity and stop you from getting food, you will either go to jail or die, this is not victory. No man is an island and you will die of loneliness one day or go crazy. Make no mistake, they are coming for you and you will eventually find yourself in a little jail cell with some blue badged broad going "tsk tsk tsk".

Don't get angry, don't get violent, just get out.

You don't seriously think trump was on the people's side? I'll say it again "same coin, different side" - let the sink in.

I do agree with a lot of what you said though. Time is short and there's probably no escape. But I also heavily agree with the post. If we collectively did nothing, then they're fucked. They're essentially like some big fat fucking glutton, always hungry, always feeding. The moment you prevent the glutton from its feed? It dies.

chinese citizens are doing that actually, it's the lying flat movement, very effective against totalitarian governments maybe more so than armed rebellion but might work well in conjunction with it don't blame them at all the fertility crisis in the west is sort of a precursor to this movement (lots of chinese don't want kids either)

StarWarsJunkie1 • 8 points • 24 July, 2021 09:14 PM

My entire time in China, I never had a single problem being a man. In the time I've spent in my own country, I've been in trouble with the law at least 5 times for living by the same rules. Here you are not allowed to be a man and you are not allowed to be vocal in any shape or form. I once had the police called on me for wearing a trump hat in a cafe.

I would much rather live under China's 'totalitarianism', at least there I can be a white man with an opinion. And before you say anything, no they are not communist and if I like it so much there why don't I go back? I'm in the process.

This is an unpopular opinion among tradcons who have never left the USA.

BlackendLight • 6 points • 24 July, 2021 10:03 PM

I'm shocked they let you do that. How does the social credit system work

StarWarsJunkie1 • 8 points • 24 July, 2021 10:50 PM*

That credit system is there for a VERY good reason.

So lemme explain something, in China there are 1.7 billion people. Of those 1.7 billion are at least a couple million that have zillions of dollars and when they break the law, they just pay off whomever is there with a couple 100k. This new system is run by AI, you can't just pay them off and walk away. Here's a few examples of rich Chinese paying their way out of jail:

<https://www.bbc.com/news/world-us-canada-38945061> [this man belongs to a rich chinese family from Wuhan]

<https://www.nytimes.com/2019/06/15/world/asia/hong-kong-murder-taiwan-extradition.html>

this one almost took us into a nuclear war, his parents are extremely wealthy

<https://www.dailymotion.com/video/xlu9ov>

This needs to never happen again in society but when you have money and others don't you don't care do you. [All these scumbags who walked by should be roasted in a gulag].

<https://www.theurbancountry.com/2012/12/beijing-woman-dies-because-ambulance.html>

Rich people who stand in front of ambulances because its cheaper to pay off the family in death than make payments throughout life.

<https://slate.com/news-and-politics/2012/08/chinas-wealthy-and-influential-sometimes-hire-body-doubles-to-serve-their-prison-sentences.html>

Hire body doubles to go to jail for you.

The social credit system keeps things fair and honest even for the rich but you're not going to hear that in propaganda. If you listen to the US media go off, you'd think that China is a prison state but the reality is that the only communism that exists is the one you see on TV. China is a hyper capitalist country. No one wants to hear this though. If you want to verify, go ask someone from the mainland, not CNN/FoxNews or the Falun Gong. I made more money working in China than I've ever made in any other country, including here at home. There are more than a few channels run by that falun gong cult here at home, like that rat fuck serpentaz on youtube.

China just did this

<https://www.reuters.com/world/china/chinas-wechat-deletes-university-lgbt-accounts-2021-07-07/>

and now we need to fight a war against them right? Ask yourself, who are you really shilling for. I lived in Urumqi btw, its ok to call them terrorists here at home but when you do it abroad its not ok anymore? Right. Lets go fight a war for the same people who want us dead.

You seem alright but your incessant China fanboying has got to stop. Sure, in a few aspects of the culture wars, they have the upper hand (vastly overemphasized in your head) but selling people on China is not the move.

Btw cool. You put up a somewhat respectable defense of a totally dystopian and scary idea that we definitely should not want spread around the world! The fact that your main defense of it being "needed" is because China is so fucked up, and that not even a cause for concern or pause for you is kinda hilarious and ironic. Sure, the solution to fixing a dystopia is make it more dystopian, got it!

It's kinda scary that you appear to genuinely believe it's a good thing. I've read all you've written and I don't even think you're some Chinese state actor, just some pitiful and lost, soon to be expat, bitter at the USA. The only reason to hate a far superior country is if trumpism is so far down your throat that you can't see reality anymore, and took the loss like a butthurt child. I'm not even a leftie, a moderate, in fact for a brief time I was quite impressed with what trump did for the economy.

Anyway, let's see your defense of rampant censorship, the great firewall, the oppression and destruction of the uighur bloodlines, and tianamen square next. This should be fun!

Why couldn't you be a fanboy for some Eastern European or South American country? China, really? Christ, even Trump knew that China is shit.

I feel like you having a Chinese wife is the main reason for this sad behavior, which is even more sad lol..

StarWarsJunkie1 • 4 points • 27 July, 2021 02:08 PM*

Nono guys, I've decided, its better you stay in that country, we'll build a wall around you instead.

My wife brought up a good point that I'd forgotten

"Why do you care what Americans and loser men, think?"

I had to do some soul searching and realized, I don't remember what I came here for anyway. Who are you to tell me what I can and can't say, compelled speech is a very left wing trait. The Uighurs belong to the same wonderful religion that emptied two jetliner's into the WTC but I guess you guys weren't around for that whole terrorism thing. I hope you all realize that muslims think you are trash and they are actively doing their best to re-instate Sharia. You are going to go fight a war for a people that see you as Demonic. You are going to fight a war for homosexuals and LGBT acceptance and you are going to fight a war for women who think you are the bottom of the barrel. I have to say, with the brief conversations that I've had with both right and left wing, Americans ARE stupid, you can literally be brainwashed into doing anything by the media. Is there even a fraction that has lived in China that can speak from an educated position? No, you just spout off about things the media tells you to hate. You are no better than the big red boogie man you are all so afraid of.

The fact that you are even using the word 'oppression' tells me exactly who the red pill subreddit is crewed by. Please Americans, don't do us colonials any favors, stay where you are, lift weights, get swole, pump and dump your women, buy your guns, vote for feminism and celebrate LGBT acceptance until your country winks out of existence.

I think I came here mostly to understand why one of my foreverAlone friends resists all the stuff that we do to set him up with girls while simultaneously spouting off coach red pill talking points that he has no experience with.

This is just another feminist breeding ground.

No one has answered my question yet, what is this forum for if not to meet up with others. This is just a safe space for recovering foreverAlonies. Man you all deserve each other, and I'm starting to wonder how many are actually homosexuals. Seems like there are alot of you internet philosophers who refuse to do anything tangible about their situations. My friends and I actively tried to better ourselves, you guys are just a group of 0's trying to keep each other down. This is a cult.

If you want to know the merits of China and the pros and cons beyond what I've said, go live there, otherwise, you know what, just stay where you are and pray things get better because you'll need a miracle..

Hey, I just had a great idea. If you are concerned with Uighur oppression, why doesn't America just take them all and give them homes/food/shelter and affordable healthcare. It'll be win/win for everyone. You'll have a flood of new people, mostly men that you can house and educate for life and you'll stop the 'oppression'. So how many people can I sign you up for?

xethreborn • 2 points • 27 July, 2021 06:10 PM

Your wife bringing up a "good" point likely only happened because you were whining that? lol

Every man who doesn't blindly follow your loyalties to China is a "loser"? K bud, that's some A grade level rationalization lol..

Don't get me started on Islam, by far the most toxic religion, but does that mean an enlightened and civilized western man has to believe the atrocities being committed by China is justifiable?

Its telling that you don't even attempt to address the censorship, humans rights violations, and Tianamen square.

The only thing I don't understand is why people don't want to protect themselves from COVID. Wearing a mask protects the wearer as well. Getting the vaccine might have long term effects, but will they be as bad as the proven long term effects of COVID like infertility and damage to internal organs? Probably not. Unless your risk of getting COVID is acceptably low as your country has few cases, why would you decline to be vaccinated?

sepan5 • 17 points • 25 July, 2021 01:04 PM

I don't mind wearing a mask in the supermarket even tho here in uk it's not mandatory anymore. But I am young and healthy so I don't need the jab and I don't trust its long term effects, the clinical trials are meant to be done in two years time and the vaxxes have only been approved as an emergency measure.

I say if ure an old person, yeah, get jabbed, coz the odds are in your favour, but if ure young and healthy, I don't see the point of being vaxxed

And from a political perspective, I see that the more we comply with fundamental rights crushing policies, even if we think they are just temporary, the deeper we are getting into a dictatorship, and the harder it'll be to overcome it and go "back to normal"

In life we need to find a balance between freedom and safety, but when we are forced in a position to choose one of them, I'll pick freedom every single time

sabanMiles11 • 19 points • 25 July, 2021 05:34 AM*

Because the data literally indicates that if you are under 60, the seasonal glue has a greater risk of serious illness and death. This opens Pandora's box for future lockdowns, health passports, centralized cancellation of people that the government doesn't like, etc

There is quite literally no long term data on lack of infertility from COVID of internal organ damage. You are making shit up. Please stop.

I can make the same exact argument that mRNA vaccines cause infertility because we literally have no fucking data long term on either

RedGunnera • 7 points • 25 July, 2021 08:17 AM*

There is evidence that COVID damages internal organs. See here less than a fifth (18%) of individuals had been hospitalised with covid-19. The most commonly reported ongoing symptoms—regardless of hospitalisation status—were fatigue (98%), muscle ache (88%), shortness of breath (87%), and headache (83%). There was evidence of mild organ impairment in the heart (32% of patients), lungs (33%), kidneys (12%), liver (10%), pancreas (17%), and spleen (6%).

This was a sample size of 200 people are they were not old people - the mean age was 44. Most of them weren't even hospitalised, where there's smoke there's fire.

The easy and obvious answer is Zionist Jew s. This has been their plan all along. They have started all the world wars, they were the winners and they wrote our fake history to brainwash our children.

These Zionists have been working with the same playbook for thousands of years and have been kicked out of countries over 100 times. They're the real racists, the real supremacists. If you read the Talmud you know they believe they're the chosen ones and believe that they will be the rulers of the world when the anti christ comes to earth and the gentiles (all non Jews) will be their slaves.

It's all public information and I've saved all this information that demonstrates that these zionists own the Mainstream media, social media, many major political positions, Hollywood, mainstream music industry, Ivy League schools, education curriculum, porn industry, banks, central banks, IMF and the most powerful political lobby's in the US (34 in total).

What are the results of their rule over the US over the last 150+ years?

1.) Degredation of morality: Getting rid of God and christian beliefs by pushing fake science, pushing drugs, sex, alcohol, and all forms of degeneracy in movies, TV, and music. Women have become sexualized as nearly all have become whores naturally just by going to public high schools or colleges. The average woman has more than 10 sexual partners in America before they hit 30 years of age. This means she cannot pair bond ever. Her life has been destroyed. With porn easily accessible this has turned our men in to weak little boys as they're draining their seed on the daily and now too afraid to approach women.

2.) Created a paper fiat ponzi scheme backed by nothing: This scheme inflates paper to its natural intrinsic value which is zero as all paper currency becomes worthless over time. This has made us all debt slaves, wage slaves and is time theft. The more they inflate or print the currency the more we have to work for less. We used to be able to buy a home with one person's salary within 1-2 years. Now it takes the husband and wife 10 years to equate to an average home in the US. This is time theft and time is the most precious resource.

3.) The family has been destroyed: Due to marriage being a government contract and those contracts heavily favoring women in nearly 90% of the cases this means women destroy the lives of men and end up with up to 50% of their resources and receive up to 50% or more of their income from child support and alimony. White men are over 70% of and majority of the time the cause is either a divorce or some kind of a breakup which steals their children and resources. Women for the most part chase after the top 10 % of men for their prime years then when they are way over the hill in their thirties they look to lock down a beta male provider then divorce him and he either kills himself or struggles for a long time after being divorce raped. Men's response has been to stop getting married. Most Women in America offer very little of value to men outside of sex or looking good (not without makeup or fake crap on. Women are not feminine, they're not virgins, they're not good at doing house wife things like cooking cleaning or taking care of children. They do not possess natural beauty as most are fake with their clown masks, plastic surgeries, etc. They're not loyal as women cheat more than men in their 20's. They're not believers of God and have little to no morals because most had no father figure growing up. Again this isn't all women but a vast majority of American women (80% or more).

4.) Turned this land into a multicultural cesspool. Before the Immigration Act of 1965 this country was over 90% white and now it's nearly under 60% white and on pace to turn whites into a minority into their own country. This is by design and bragged about by the zionists (who demand DNA tests for citizenship in Israel). Allowing this invasion to happen has slowly led to the destruction of this nation. The statues have already been demolished. These people from different nations have lower IQ's and are easily manipulated. When you have many different cultures and races it's easier to divide and conquer.

5.) Created the hegelian dialectic: Since they not only hold major political positions but the most powerful lobby's as well as the currency supply they control our rules regulations, congressmen, president, etc. The right and left are two sides of the same coin. These low IQ people are nothing more than actors that don't care about you just the money they receive from their special interests and do as their puppet masters tell them to do. Voting does nothing and will never change anything as our fake rulers are selected for us by the puppet masters. The media makes it appear as there are two sides but it's all owned and controlled by the same people that control our fake rulers.

6.) Brainwashing indoctrination camps and lowering the IQ of the Nation: Schools are designed like prison and like wage slave jobs. They're built to do nothing more than to make us low educated wage slaves, to follow authority, to memorize their fake historical references and other worthless garbage that doesn't help one become successful in life. Our Nation has become dumber every single generation and now these poor kids wouldn't know how to survive without a cell phone, and electricity. They have no common sense, no life skills, no business skills nothing.

Feel free to lookup who owns the mainstream media, social media, banks, central banks, Hollywood, music industry, porn industry, etc. These clowns fooled all of us into believing that the white man were the evil ones in history meanwhile they were the real racists destroying all non gentiles by funding all of us to fight world wars and sacrifice ourselves for Israel to destroy palestine. They're playing chess and we're playing checkers. If you point this out you will be called anti semetic, censored or cancelled. Most people don't want to believe this because the brainwashing they received is so strong that even if I give all the evidence right in front of them they will refuse to believe it. It's easier to brainwash a person than it is to tell someone they've been brainwashed.

The redpill is nice but it doesn't touch on the heart on many of the major world issues of today and Zionism is at the center of these major issues.

Unfortunately there's nothing we can do. Like I said before, myself or even a thousand people can go on social media send articles or books to the mainstream media, the newspapers, start our own podcasts, blogs or even websites but the zionists will have us shut down, censored, deleted, call us antisemites and all kinds of names just for pointing out facts and things their own people have pointed out before. Nothing I've said is new as this has been pointed out by zionists before as they like to brag about their power. Combine this with the fact that their brainwashing methods are so strong that very few would believe these facts to begin with.

The funny thing is this post will most likely be deleted even though this is in the red pill community thus it will prove my point to be true.

I wish no harm to anyone. I want nothing more than to express my right of freedom of speech and I would never restrict anyone of this same right.

If you delete this post you prove this post to be correct.

If you call me anti-semetic, racist, etc then you make my point valid.

I only wish to show you facts, the truth and ask for you to have an open mind.

Zionism is why a small thing like the red pill community exists but the redpill doesn't touch on the real reasons for all the major issues of today. Having this knowledge is a significant advantage in life. You no longer are asking why things are becoming more immoral, more upsidedown, or why women are becoming bigger slutz or why men are becoming weaker or why the population is becoming dumber or why the white man is slowly becoming a minority in his own country. Everything we built throughout the history of this nation will be for nothing because it's all crashing down now and once the white man is a minority in the US that will be the official end of this once great nation.

Good luck to everyone here. I hope this helps you on your journey's to finding the truth.

Detail_Mission • 2 points • 13 August, 2021 01:30 AM

The answer is they don't hate you. They just don't love you and a vast majority never will love you. They love the lifestyle and children you can potentially give them but they do not love you. The mixture of chemicals and hormones after the first few months of sex wears out eventually. After that, if they're still around you that means they enjoy the lifestyle you provide them (money, fame, status, benefits, etc).

Here's a test if you want to see if a woman loves you for you.

- 1.) No sex (sex is only a temporary pleasure and overtime the level of good hormones for a woman wears down to nothing so sex is meaningless unless for children. Therefore you only provide the sex when she follows everything else and you believe she is the one who can provide the children for you.
- 2.) Don't buy her anything or give her compliments or live a lavish lifestyle. If she wants to be miss independent boss lady then let her pay. Don't buy her anything actually ask her to invest in you.
- 3.) Punish her bad behavior and reward her good behavior.
- 4.) Set up boundries:
  - a.) No social media
  - b.) at home/remote job
  - c.) You have full access to her phone at any time
  - d.) No going out to the clubs, girls night, vacation, etc.
  - e.) She must cook, clean, (raise the kids if this happens in the future).
- 5.) You're allowed to get your sexual fulfillment from other woman. If she truly loves you she will accept you fng other garden tools. This is because if you're high enough value she will understand you have unlimited options and you're the best she can or will ever do. She also understands that if you were to constantly pound her daily that those good feelings after and during sex will eventually fade and she will lose interest in you and look elsewhere which is why you must connect on a deeper level. However, many high value men will seek to spread that seed and if they woman truly loves you she will accept this.

If she ends up respecting all these boundries and sticking with you through all of this then she does truly love you. Folks, a woman like this a almost extinct but they do exist.

Most people don't give much of a shit if you're a straight white male building yourself up. Your fantasies about all the "hate" you get are just as fucktarded as the people demanding reparations for slavery.

If they have a job they have professional job priorities, on par with the level of proficiency in a market economy's chain of production or other public services. They work according to the chosen / designated / opportunistic roles ordered by Society in the complex division of labor. If any of you or your peers still have problems figuring out what is your place in history, it's highly recommended you play a strategy video game , like Age of Empires or the Civilization franchise.
