

Any other Caucasian males not really interested in Caucasian females?

I keep seeing more and more Caucasian females with brown or black boys.

Typically ones with attitudes (bad boys)

All I can think of is how dumb they are and how they want guys to treat them like shit.

Personally I prefer brown chicks. Or half Caucasian and half brown even.

Any thoughts on this?

I am a white Brazilian, only like brown skin to caramel girls.

No, they are anecdotes. People will always be more likely to get with someone the same skin colour as them.
You seeing it more often doesn't mean the rate is rising.

Never said it was. Just notice it a lot.

Mostly trashy ones though.
