So she can take it off.

Until you had enough then you took that ring off
You took that ring off
So tired of the lies and trying, fighting, crying
Took that ring off
Oh, now the fun begins
Dust yourself off and you love again
You found a new man now you shine and you're fine

For those playing at home, the Beyoncé female empowerment lyrical progression on marriage and rings is:

1. 2000: Independent Women “I buy my own diamonds and I buy my own rings”
2. 2008: Put a ring on it.
3. 2013: The Mrs. Carter World Tour.
4. 2014: Ring Off (a divorce empowerment anthem for her mother)
